

18th Scientific Meeting of the SOHT

Geneva, Switzerland, August 28-30, 2013

WELCOME TO GENEVA

© Genève Tourisme

Geneva is an important intellectual and cultural center with one of the oldest Universities in Europe, over 30 museums, numerous art galleries, theaters, the Opera House, and important international organizations.

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Wednesday, August 28

Afternoon; Oral Session 1: Expertise and interpretation

Thursday, August 29

Morning; Oral Session 2: New analytical trends in hair analysis

Afternoon; Oral Session 3: Quality assurance in hair analysis

Friday, August 30

Morning; Oral Session 4: Hair and environmental exposition

Session 5: Free topics

15.30h: End of the meeting

The conference will be held from at the Auditorium Louis-Jeantet, located in a residential area and near the International Airport, the railway station, the lake of Geneva and the historic old town. The cultural and historical center of Geneva is within walking distance, which allows us to combine scientific meetings with social and cultural activities.

The closeness to the TIAFT meeting which will be held from September 2-6 allows you to combine both meetings. There are many flights from Geneva to Lisbon by Easyjet (3 flights daily) and TAP Air (3 flights daily) for less than 100 EUR. Connecting flights to Funchal (Madeira) are also offered by Easyjet (2-3 flights daily from less than 100 EUR) and TAP Air (8 flights daily, from less than 100 EUR). Early booking is recommended.
